Gentlemen,

This is in regard to SCE&G's rate increase.

I do not know this as fact, but I have heard from an SCE&G employee that the CEO has a limo and driver for use from his home to his office and also uses the corporate plane from his homes elsewhere to his office in Columbia.

But even if that's not true, I'd like to know what impact on rates do the perks of senior officers have? And are corporate plane costs and personal use of the corporate plane by senior officers allowed in the cost structure for rates?

Thanks for your help.

Sincerely

JERRY WHITLEY
